- 8.3 Food and beverages must not be consumed outside corporate box.

9. Indemnity

- 9.1 The client will accept responsibility for all of its guests (whether invited or not) and will indemnify, defend and hold harmless Tennis Australia and Tennis Tasmania for any damage caused to the box and the cost of repair or replacement of any fixtures, furnishings and equipment, resulting from the client or its guests damage to the box.
- 9.2 The client will indemnify, defend and hold harmless Tennis Australia and Tennis Tasmania and their officers, employees, contractors against and all liability, losses (including legal costs on an indemnity basis or, if held to be inappropriate, a solicitor – client basis), claims, demands, costs and expenses by reason of the client's breach of this Agreement, negligence or wilful misconduct in performance or purported performance of its rights, benefits and obligations under these terms and conditions.

10. Access by TA and Other Parties

- 10.1 TA and its officers, agents, employees and contractors including the Caterer shall be entitled to access the box on such occasions as deemed necessary for performing its duties and obligations under these Terms and Conditions and any obligations imposed by the Venue.

11. Liability

Neither Tennis Australia, Tennis Tasmania nor any entity managing the Venue shall be liable to the client or its guests for any loss, damage or injury to any person or property in or around the box, unless such loss, damage or injury is occasioned as a result of the negligent act or omission of Tennis Australia, Tennis Tasmania or the entity managing the Venue.

If Tennis Australia, Tennis Tasmania or any entity managing the venue is liable to you for any breach of these Terms and Conditions, that party's liability to you is limited to repaying amounts paid by you or supplying or resupplying any tickets to which you are entitled in accordance with these Terms and Conditions.

- 11.1 Neither party shall be deemed to be in breach of this Agreement or otherwise liable to the other as a result of any delay or failure in the performance of its obligations under this Agreement if and to the extent that the delay or failure is caused by force majeure (as defined in clause 11.2) and the time for performance of the relevant obligations(s) shall be extended accordingly.
- 11.2 For the purpose of this clause 'force majeure' means any circumstances not foreseeable at the date of this Agreement and not within the reasonable control of the party in question, including but not limited to any act of God, fire, explosion, flood, war, acts of terrorism, theft, malicious damage, strikes, lock-outs, or industrial action of any kind, government regulation or requirement and a restraint by a governmental agency ('Force Majeure Event').
- 11.3 A party whose performance of its obligations under this Agreement is delayed or prevented by a Force Majeure Event:
 - (a) shall immediately notify the other party of the nature, extent, effect and likely duration of the circumstances constituting the Force Majeure Event;
 - (b) shall use all reasonable endeavours to minimise the effect of the Force Majeure Event on its performance of its obligations under this Agreement; and
 - (c) shall (subject to clause 11.4) immediately after the Force Majeure Event has ended, notify the other party and resume full performance of its obligations under this Agreement.
- 11.4 If any Force Majeure Event prevents the performance of the obligations of either party for a continuous period in excess of one month, the party not so affected shall then be entitled to give notice to the affected party to terminate this Agreement specifying the date (which shall not be less than seven (7) days after the date on which the notice is given) on which termination will take effect. Such a termination notice shall be irrevocable except with the consent of both parties.
- 11.5 If the Event is cancelled or not re-scheduled for any reason, the parties shall be relieved from their respective obligations to each other hereunder as regards to the Event for that year without liability whatsoever.

12. General

- 12.1 The client shall not assign or sub-contract its rights and obligations under these terms and conditions to any third party without Tennis Australia's prior written consent.
- 12.2 These terms and conditions constitute the entire agreement between the parties and may only be modified, varied, amended or added to in writing signed by both parties.
- 12.3 Any notices required to be given under this Agreement shall be deemed to have been given if delivered by any means to the addresses set out in the reservation form.
- 12.4 The laws of Victoria shall govern this Agreement and the parties agree to submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of Victoria.
- 12.5 Tennis Australia reserves the right to refuse to sell Corporate boxes to any company or individual.
- 12.6 Tennis Australia, acting in good faith, reserves the right in it absolute discretion to determine the final location of seats.
- 12.7 Seat allocations for Hobart International 2010 are no guarantee of same seating at future tournaments.

Please take into consideration that this is an outdoor event. Therefore it is highly recommended that you bring appropriate protection from the sun and weather generally i.e. hats, sunscreen, raincoats or warm clothing depending on the weather conditions.
