6. Ticket Onselling, Advertising and Promotions

- 6.1 Sale of each corporate package and ticket creates a contract between Tennis Australia and the purchaser which gives the purchaser a transferable but conditional license for admission to Domain Tennis Centre for a certain session of the Moorilla Hobart International Event. The license will automatically terminate if the purchaser or any subsequent transferee, without the prior written consent of TA, resells the part or all of the corporate package or ticket(s) including but not limited to sales at a premium or through a broker or agent; advertises or offers the package or ticket(s) for resale on the internet or in any other medium; or packages, advertises or uses the package or ticket(s) for advertising, promotion or other commercial purposes (including competitions or trade promotions) or to enhance the demand for other goods or services. If a corporate package or ticket is sold or used in breach of these conditions and the license has terminated, TA has the right to deny admission to the bearer of the ticket, to cancel the relevant package, or to take other action, without any guarantee of a refund.

7. Assignment

- 7.1 Corporate Packages may be assigned to a single company or individual for the duration of the Corporate package in question provided Tennis Australia provides its prior written consent. Any assignment is subject to the sole discretion of Tennis Australia, which reserves the right to refuse any assignment. Tennis Australia will only consider requests to assign packages where there is a written commitment from the assignee, including its agreement to be bound by these Terms and Conditions.
- 7.2 In the event of any assignment, the original purchaser of the Corporate package will remain responsible for the assignee of the package and the individual holder(s) of the allocated ticket(s), and will indemnify, defend and hold harmless Tennis Australia against all loss, cost, expense and liability in relation to the sale and use of the ticket(s) or package.
- 7.3 Any requests to assign Corporate packages must be made in writing and directed to Tennis Australia. If a request is granted, Tennis Australia will obtain any necessary information from the assignee and will arrange for any signage, catering and program listings to be printed in the assignee's name where possible.

8. Indemnity and Liability

- 8.1 Corporate Hospitality clients are responsible for the acts and omissions of their employees, invitees and guests whilst at Domain Tennis Centre, and the corporate hospitality client agrees to release and indemnify, defend and hold harmless Tennis Australia and Tennis Tasmania, and their respective employees, servants and agents in respect of any loss, liability or expense whatsoever (including damage caused to the corporate box and the cost of repair or replacement of any fixtures, furnishings and equipment) and howsoever arising (including legal fees on an indemnity basis or, if deemed inappropriate, on a solicitor / client basis) resulting from or in connection with the acts of omissions of that corporate hospitality client (or its employees, invitees and guests) or the client's breach of these terms and conditions.
- 8.2 To the maximum extent permitted by law, the corporate hospitality client agrees that Tennis Australia and Tennis Tasmania, and their respective officers, directors, employees, representatives and agents, are released and discharged of and from any and all claims, demands, suits, damages, loss and injury that the corporate hospitality client may suffer or sustain, by negligence or otherwise. To the extent that Tennis Australia or Tennis Tasmania cannot exclude liability then, to the maximum extent permitted by law, their aggregate liability is limited (at its election) to repaying amounts paid by the corporate hospitality client or supplying or resupplying any tickets which have been reserved for the corporate hospitality client in accordance with these Terms and Conditions of Sale and Entry.
