MOORILLA HOBART INTERNATIONAL CORPORATE CONDITIONS OF SALE AND ENTRY 2009

All Corporate packages are issued subject to these Conditions of Sale and Entry 2009

Code of Conduct:

All Corporate Clients/guests are requested to comply with the following:

- Tickets must be shown correctly at all times.
- Clients/guests should refrain from making loud comments including questioning the abilities of any player, umpire or lines person.
- Clients/guests should refrain from using foul language.
- Please ensure that all mobile phones and blackberries are on silent or tuned off during matches.

Please note:

The Tournament Director is empowered to remove anyone displaying unacceptable conduct from the area.

Event Security also have the right to remove anyone not adhering to the above policy.

1. The Corporate Box

- 1.1 The corporate box is a private box with eight seats.
- 1.2 The client has exclusive access and use of the box for the duration of the Moorilla Hobart International Event.

2. Furnishings, Décor and Maintenance

- 2.1 The box is furnished and equipped with fixtures and furnishings.
- 2.2 Tennis Australia (TA) shall provide necessary repairs, maintenance and cleaning to the box. The client shall notify Tennis Australia of any request for repairs, maintenance or cleaning.
- 2.3 No additions, changes, alterations or other improvements shall be made to the box without the prior written consent of Tennis Australia.

3. Reservations

- 3.1 Reservations will only be accepted on receipt of a completed reservation form together with full payment.
- 3.2 A Tennis Australia confirmation letter/receipt will be issued to all clients for all successful reservations.

4. Payments

- 4.1 In consideration of being granted the use of the Corporate box, the client will pay Tennis Australia the fee set out on the reservation form at the time of submitting that form.
- 4.2 The reservation form is an official tax invoice for GST when you make payment.
- 4.3 Tennis Australia advises, and the client acknowledges, that a credit card fee will apply to all credit card purchases, where any portion of the total fee is paid by credit card.
- 4.4 The credit card fee for purchases will be:
2.2% for American Express
1.5% for Visa and MasterCard
- 4.5 All prices are exclusive of GST. Tennis Australia reserves the right to adjust prices due to any increase or decrease in GST.

5. Possession and Use

- 5.1 All tickets provided to the client are:
 - (a) subject to the Event ticketing policies; and
 - (b) for the sole and exclusive use of the client and its guests.
- 5.2 All corporate boxes are issued subject to the Australian Open Series terms and conditions 2009. In particular, no on-selling, whether for fee or other valuable consideration, advertising or solicitation of corporate boxes is permitted at any stage. Unauthorised on-selling, advertising or solicitation may result in the cancellation of existing allocations whether corporate or otherwise, without the guarantee of refund.
- 5.3 Corporate boxes may not, without the prior written consent of the Tournament Director of Tennis Australia, be used for any promotion, fundraising or commercial purpose (including competition or trade promotions) or to enhance the demand for other goods or services. If a ticket is in breach of this condition:
 - (a) The bearer may be denied admission without recourse against Tennis Australia; and/or
 - (b) Other action may be taken against the bearer of the ticket or against the purchaser or assignee of the corporate box.
- 5.4 The client and the client's guests shall only be entitled to use the box at times for which appropriate tickets for admission to the box have been obtained. The client and client's guests shall be bound by the terms and conditions of entry to the event as specified on the tickets.

6. Tickets

- 6.1 Tickets will be issued upon receipt of full payment.
- 6.2 Tickets will be forwarded to the client in mid November.
- 6.3 Lost or stolen tickets can be reissued on:
 - (a) Payment of a fee of $20 inclusive of GST for each lost or stolen ticket.
 - (b) Receipt of a written request specifying the lost ticket/s and session details is required.

7. Signage

- 7.1 The client will be required to provide their company logo to the event appointed contractor for signage. Please note: signage can only be provided if there is no conflict with existing event sponsors.
- 7.2 No advertising or promotion by your company will be permitted within the Domain Tennis Centre site or surrounding precinct without the prior written consent of the Tournament Director of the Moorilla Hobart International.

8. Food and Beverage

- 8.1 The client agrees that it shall not permit its guests to bring food or beverages into the box.
- 8.2 Tennis Australia shall make catering available to the client through the official corporate caterer at the Event ("Caterer"). The cost of such catering is to be borne by the client.
- 8.3 Food and beverages must not be consumed outside corporate box.

9. Indemnity

- 9.1 The client will accept responsibility for all of its guests (whether invited or not) and will indemnify, defend and hold harmless Tennis Australia and Tennis Tasmania for any damage caused to the box and the cost of repair or replacement of any fixtures, furnishings and equipment, resulting from the client or its guests damage to the box.

- 9.2 The client will indemnify, defend and hold harmless Tennis Australia and Tennis Tasmania and their officers, employees, contractors against and all liability, losses (including legal costs on an indemnity basis or, if held to be inappropriate, a solicitor – client basis), claims, demands, costs and expenses by reason of the client's breach of this Agreement, negligence or wilful misconduct in performance or purported performance of its rights, benefits and obligations under these terms and conditions.

10. Access by TA and Other Parties

- 10.1 Tennis Australia and its officers, agents, employees and contractors including the Caterer shall be entitled to access the box on such occasions as deemed necessary for performing its duties and obligations under these Terms and Conditions and any obligations imposed by the Venue.

11. Liability

- 11.1 Neither Tennis Australia, Tennis Tasmania nor any entity managing the Venue shall be liable to the client or its guests for any loss, damage or injury to any person or property in or around the box, unless such loss, damage or injury is occasioned as a result of the negligent act or omission of Tennis Australia, Tennis Tasmania or the entity managing the Venue.
- 11.2 If Tennis Australia, Tennis Tasmania or any entity managing the venue is liable to you for any breach of these Terms and Conditions, that party's liability to you is limited to repaying amounts paid by you or supplying or resupplying any tickets to which you are entitled in accordance with these Terms and Conditions.
- 11.3 Neither party shall be deemed to be in breach of this Agreement, or otherwise to the other liable, as a result of any delay or failure in the performance of its obligations under this Agreement if and to the extent that the delay or failure is caused by force majeure (as defined in clause 9.2) and the time for performance of the relevant obligations(s) shall be extended accordingly.
- 11.4 For the purpose of this clause 'force majeure' means any circumstances not foreseeable at the date of this Agreement and not within the reasonable control of the party in question, including but not limited to any act of God, fire, explosion, flood, war, acts of terrorism, theft, malicious damage, strikes, lock-outs, or industrial action of any kind, government regulation or requirement and a restraint by a governmental agency ('Force Majeure Event').
- 11.5 A party whose performance of its obligations under this Agreement is delayed or prevented by a Force Majeure Event:
 - (a) shall immediately notify the other party of the nature, extent, effect and likely duration of the circumstances constituting the Force Majeure Event;
 - (b) shall use all reasonable endeavours to minimise the effect of the Force Majeure Event on its performance of its obligations under this Agreement; and
 - (c) shall immediately after the Force Majeure Event has ended, notify the other party and resume full performance of its obligations under this Agreement.
- 11.6 If any Force Majeure Event prevents the performance of the obligations of either party for a continuous period in excess of one month, the party not so affected shall then be entitled to give notice to the affected party to terminate this Agreement specifying the date (which shall not be less than seven (7) days after the date on which the notice is given) on which termination will take effect. Such a termination notice shall be irrevocable except with the consent of both parties.

- 11.7 If the Event is cancelled or not re-scheduled for any reason, the parties shall be relieved from their respective obligations to each other hereunder as regards to the Event for that year without liability whatsoever. Where part or all of the Event is cancelled (and not just postponed), Tennis Australia will offer a refund on a pro rata basis having regard to the portion of the package not able to be delivered.

12. General

- 12.1 The client shall not assign or sub-contract its rights and obligations under these terms and conditions to any third party without Tennis Australia's prior written consent.
- 12.2 These terms and conditions constitute the entire agreement between the parties and may only be modified, varied, amended or added to in writing signed by both parties.
- 12.3 Any notices required to be given under this Agreement shall be deemed to have been given if delivered by any means to the addresses set out in the reservation form.
- 12.4 The laws of Victoria shall govern this Agreement and the parties agree to submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of Victoria.
- 12.5 Tennis Australia reserves the right to refuse to sell Corporate boxes to any company or individual.
- 12.6 Tennis Australia, acting in good faith, reserves the right in its absolute discretion to determine the final location of seats.
- 12.7 Seat allocations for Moorilla Hobart International 2009 are no guarantee of same seating at future tournaments.

Please take into consideration that this is an outdoor event. It is highly recommended that you bring appropriate protection from the sun and weather such as hats, sunscreen, raincoats or warm clothing, depending on the weather conditions.
